Nobody wants violence. And we are conditioned from the time we were children in this country to always think that violence is a horrible, horrible thing until we go back and reflect on a revolutionary war. They picked up guns at some point soon enough. So reflect on the Civil War. We ended slavery by picking up guns and dealing with that. We don't want that to have to happen, but it always has to be something in the back of your mind.

~~One of my takeaways from attending the Q conference is that this is so much Mawr, the Q and A movement when~~ my big takeaways for attending the Q conferences that the Cuban movement is so much more than just the predictions or the feeling like you're getting inside information is about the community.

10:17:08;08

The people there felt like they were part of something big and revolutionary and that they were opposing absolute evil.

10:17:16;02

And that made me feel like this is something that's not going to go away just because Trump lost election.
